

HERTFORDSHIRE COUNTY SHOW

28th & 29th May 2016

PRESS ACCREDITATION 2016

Thank you for your interest in attending. Please read the following conditions before applying.

- Press accreditation will only be granted to members of the media attending who will be producing substantial coverage of the shows and/or previewed the events.
- People writing for personal blogs or unrelated publications will not be considered for accreditation.
- Please note that applications submitted from freelancers will need to be supported with editors contact details and confirmation of offer of publication.
- Please support your application with examples of published work from past events
- Except in certain circumstances, magazines and websites will be issued a maximum of one writer's/photographer's pass.
- You can support your application by sending us your cuttings from last year - email any web links or PDF cuttings to office@hertsshow.com or alternatively, send printed editorial to Hertfordshire County Show, The Showground, Dunstable Road, Redbourn, Hertfordshire. AL3 7PT
- In support of your application please provide a copy of your photographer's public liability insurance
- At present we have no designated press viewing areas, seats in grandstands are unreserved and will be first come first served
- Any photographer entering rings must first gain permission from the judge or steward present. If your actions are disruptive you will be asked to leave. There is not a strict dress code but we do request that press/photographers do not wear shorts or scruffy jeans.
- Only the show's official event photographers have permission to sell photographs to the public. Photographers must not canvas riders, owners or the general public in order to sell photographs taken at the show or they will be asked to leave.
